Our Joint Venture

With more than 45 years of experience in professional technical, information technology and construction services, MTNT and Anubis have teamed to take-on the mission and performance goals of our customers as our own.

Anubis is a Florida Corporation with headquarters in New Hampshire, and offices in Texas and Alabama. The company was founded in 2008 to provide U.S. Federal military and civilian government agencies with professional technical and project management services. Since opening its doors, Anubis program and project managers have successfully managed more than 80 military construction and demolition projects.

The depth and scalability of our combined capabilities is enhanced by our partnership. Through MTNT Anubis JV, LLC, we have merged our core values of honesty, integrity and quality customer service.
